In the late 1970's, then Chair of the Department, Irv Saltzman, took a medical leave for a semester. He appointed four acting chairpersons. Those of you who remember Irv will remember that he always wore a bow tie.

During his leave, we put together a book of photographs and sent them to him. We thought that some of you might enjoy seeing them.
A Report on the Status of the Psychology Department

With the full cooperation of
ALL THE MEMBERS OF THE PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENT

(who said they thought it was a good idea at the time)
Although it is sometimes difficult to tell
Who is the acting chairman,
we think they are handling things in a way you would approve.
We've welcomed the new students.
The members of the faculty
Continue their scholarly pursuits.
Large classes,
medium classes,

small classes,

Teaching continues about the same except,
some of the new people say the students are getting to them and we've instituted a new teaching evaluation instrument.
The air conditioning is working well.
